Final Words

- This plan is for individuals or schools who want to try out CCC in a short period.
- The data and numbers in this plan are only for reference. They can be adjusted based on students' age, background, learning environment, etc. The learning curve is that students' learning speed usually picks up after the first two lessons.
- For individual study, we suggest at least three sessions a week. Please refer to “CCC Learning Theory” and “CCC Home Teaching Plan” on details about CCC's teaching and learning.
- If group study class can only be offered at weekend, we suggest to have two sessions with 10 minutes break in between.
- For group study, please refer to the “CCC Teacher's Guide” on
 - * ways of using teaching tool: CCC Character Stripes and CCC Character Cards,
 - * how to lead recitation,
 - * how to play games with students for character recognition and memorization,
 - * how to draw student's attention and make the learning an enjoyable experience, etc.
